James Lynch

AVAILABLE WORKS

James Lynch

James Lynch grew up in Wiltshire and lives in Somerset. Since his first sell-out exhibition in the 1980s he has become one of the finest practitioners worldwide of egg tempera, as well as one of the UK's finest landscape artists, capturing the gauzy light, chalky downs and lush pastures of the West Country.

James is a keen paraglider pilot and his 'wild flying' with buzzards inspires many of his landscapes and skiescapes. It is from his aerial exploration of the landscape, suspended in a harness beneath his fabric wing, that he distills his paintings, capturing light and skies as much as the earth beneath them in works of transcendent beauty.

The technique of egg tempera is ancient and enables distinct visual effects as coloured pigment is laid onto a bright gesso ground. It is revered for its luminescence and sense of serenity, and is made simply of egg yolk bound into an emulsion with ground pigments and vinegar. It requires the artist to work extremely quickly and leaves little room for error. James has developed this medium over many years – played with it and improvised – to develop an instantly recognisable style that perfectly captures his favourite landscapes. I hope you enjoy these soaring visions of our Wiltshire landscape.
