HEADLINE ACT

Alleyne Dance Presents 'Far From Home'

Friday 14 and Saturday 15 July

Far From Home is a hard-hitting, atmospheric, abstract narrative dance production that explores the topic of immigration, and the consequences of the search for a better life.

'Kristina & Sadé are leading lights in the dance world currently, both showcasing their clear vision as to what the prominent issues of today are...' Theatre Full Stop

CORNERSTONE EVENT

4X20 Choreography Platform

Tuesday 18 July

The cornerstone event of the festival, this unique platform commissions two emerging choreographers to present one pre-existing and one newly developed choreographic work of up to 20 minutes each, with a maximum of 4 dancers - hence 4X20.

This year the platform presents the work of Chandenie Gobardhan and John-William Watson.

HEADLINE ACT

Spoken Movement Presents 'Family Honour'

Friday 21 and Saturday 22 July

Family Honour examines the eponymous concept through the eyes of a young girl trapped in moral codes mandated by her immediate environment.

Family Honour won the prestigious French choreographic competition Danse Elargie and 2019's Rotterdam International Duet Choreography Competition.

'Sophisticated in its use of hip-hop language for theatrical ends.' The Guardian

Messums Dance Film Festival

Sunday 23 July, 11am - 4pm

An exciting cross-section of movement artists creating dance on camera today - exploring the synergy between the movement of the dancer and the movement of the camera.
